

DIS

Chun-Kyung Paulus SUH is Senior Counsel at the German Arbitration Institute (DIS) and has administered some hundred international arbitration cases. He is of Korean nationality and is a qualified German Rechtsanwalt. In the past two years, Paulus has represented DIS as observer at UNCITRAL Working Group II. Before joining DIS, he was Research Associate at the Institute of International Law, University of Munich, among others working with Judge Bruno Simma and with Judge Georg Nolte, gaining some practical experience at the International

Court of Justice and performing research in the field of EU law, public international law and international investment law.